glamping!

GLAMPING?!

Glamour + Camping = Glamping. It's an awesome way to pamper yourself while getting in touch with nature. Everyone can go glamping, and there are more ways than ever to get out there and enjoy the national parks.

BUT AREN'T NATIONAL PARKS FOR OLDIES?

Nope! The national parks are America's greatest natural treasures. The National Park Service is also responsible for over 400 sites, from Lake Chelan in Washington state to Castillo de San Marcos, a fort in Florida. There's something for everyone!

Where are we going?

OMG

there are so many options.
Let me tell you about my faves.

SEQUOIA & KINGS CANYON NATIONAL PARKS

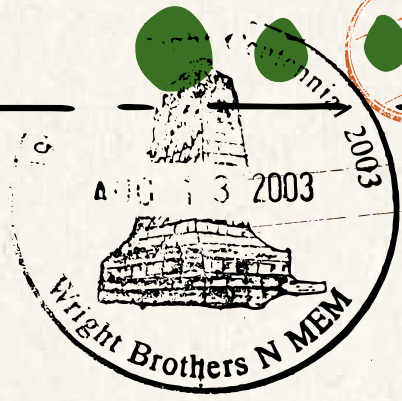

I love it when a national park is close to LA.
It's famous for giant sequoias, some of the largest trees in the world. You can also go to Tokopah Falls for a view like nothing else.

THE GRAND CANYON

OK, Hollywood girls with vertigo need not apply. But if you can get over your fear of heights, head to Arizona and glamp near the Grand Canyon. It developed over 40 million years which is, like, older than my agent.

YOSEMITE NATIONAL PARK

Another California national park, but this one's in the north. Yosemite features giant rock formations formed by glaciers. It's an awesome place to try - or return to - rock climbing.

OTHER PARKS

There are so many amazing national park sites, I can't list them all - so go to findyourpark.com and look for one to visit. And if you're not quite ready to take the plunge and stay the night, why not get your feet wet with a day trip? Now, hold on to your hat 'cause we're about to go glamping Hollywood girl style!

What about the CAMPSITE?

It doesn't matter how much you spend, glamping is an attitude – and as long as you've got attitude, you're glamping. But here are the things I look for in a campsite.

TOILETS

Digging holes in the ground is SO NOT COOL. Just make sure your campsite has toilet facilities, including...

SHOWERS!

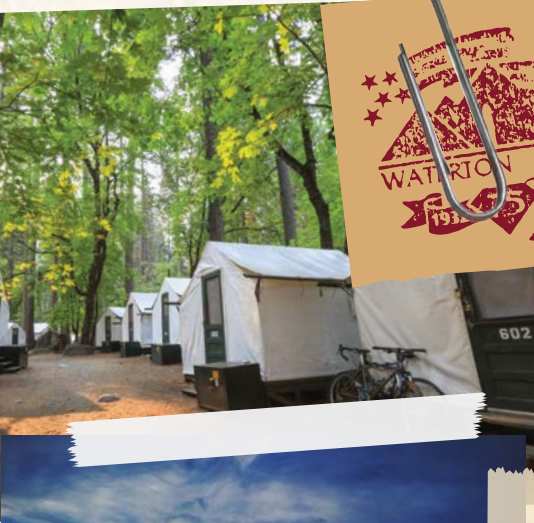

Because Hollywood girls may love nature, but that doesn't mean we have to smell eau natural. #HotWaterILoveYou #ShowerSinging

ROAD-ACCESSIBLE

Little secret: I don't pack light. And if you want to make the most out of glamping, you shouldn't either. So make sure your campsite is road-accessible, or you might have to drag your stuff up a mountain. Well, your publicist might.

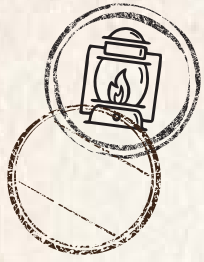

SPECIAL ACCOMMODATIONS

If putting up a tent sounds too much like hard work, a campsite with special accommodations is perfect for you. You could stay in a yurt, a cabin or even a treehouse! Dibs on the treehouse.

What's in MY BAG?

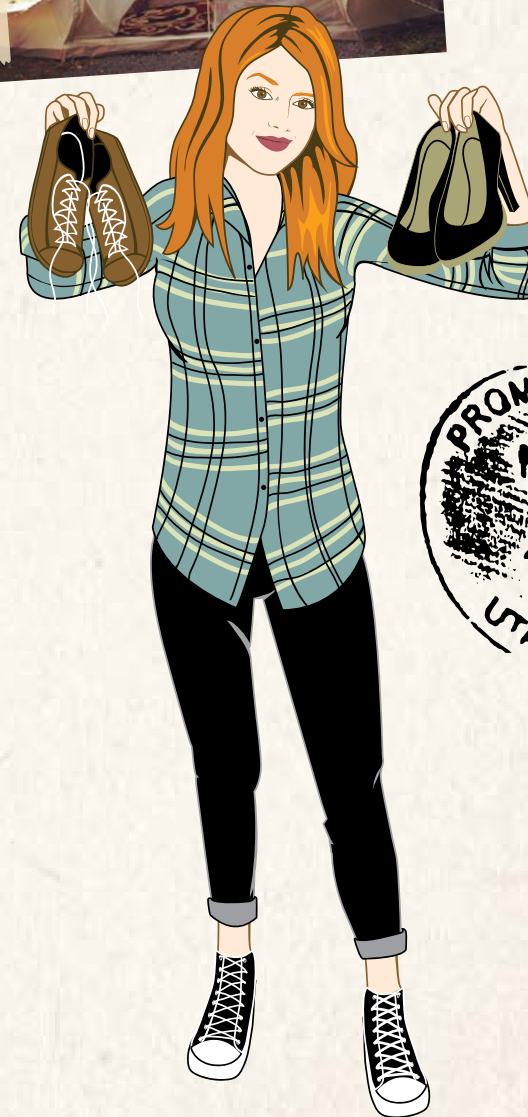

Pack everything! Okay, you can't pack everything. So here's a handy guide to all the things a Hollywood girl's just gotta have.

SHOES

Every self-respecting Hollywood girl loves shoes but trust me, there's nothing glam about a blister so leave the pumps at home. I like sneakers for morning hikes and relaxed afternoons lounging in the sun.

BED

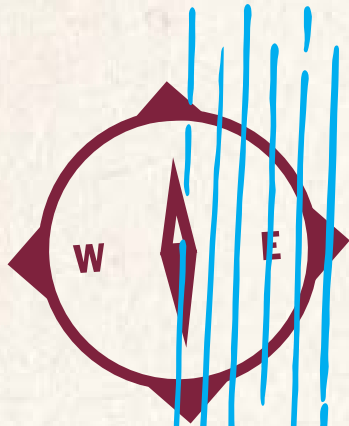

Camp bed, air mattress or luxury hammock, just make sure it's comfortable so you can get your zzz's. Bring your own awesome bedding and let your personality shine.

FOOD

There's no corner store and the nearest restaurant is a long, long, long walk, so don't forget to bring your own food. It doesn't have to be survival rations either – bring some kitchenware for a gourmet dinner under the stars.

BEAUTY ESSENTIALS

Gotta have em. My list? Dry shampoo, SPF lip gloss to beat the elements, waterproof mascara and nail polish for a mid-afternoon manicure.

CLOTHES

#comfy #sporty #glam #chic
#shorts #tees #dresses
#patternedsocks #orwhatever
#dressshowyoufeel #youdoyou

TENT

It'll be your home away from home, so make it FAB. Personalize the outside so everyone knows you're there to get wild.

TAKE IT WITH YOU

Hollywood girls love nature - so take everything you've brought with you, including trash, when you leave. Help keep the national parks beautiful for everyone!

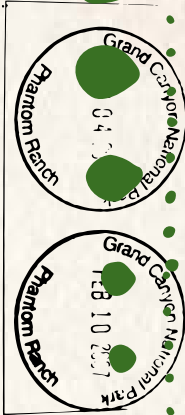

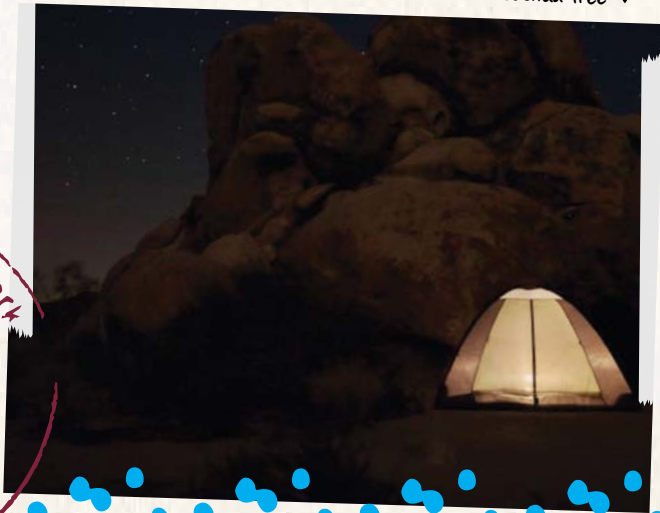

WHAT SHALL WE DO? SO MUCH!

HERE'S MY IDEAL GLAMPING DIARY:

6AM	wake up for sunrise. You can see forever out here.
7AM	go back to bed, I need my zzz's!
9AM	breakfast, shower and mani-pedi.
11AM	try to snap some local wildlife. #Fail. Take a selfie instead.

1PM	light lunch of salad and smoothie. I love smoothies. Did I mention I love smoothies?
3PM	afternoon hiking. I'm so far into nature, I can't get cell phone access. Bad for my agent, good for me.
7PM	dinner outside in nature. Can't cook so it's instant ramen. Mmmmm ramen.
10PM	join park rangers for a night sky program. When you're away from towns and cities in nature, you can see thousands of stars. It's amazing!

EAST

I hope you've enjoyed my guide and get inspired to try glamping for yourselves - it's awesome fun.

So get up, get out there and
